

Retiring today after 37 years of service at Crofton, the school finally got its own back on Mr Jackson with a "Gotcha"! Despite a host of comical errors during a final tour for a new "fake" parent this morning, he seemed to take it in good spirits. The whole school lined up to applaud him and wish him well! We are sure the whole Crofton Community will join us in wishing him a long and happy retirement!

