

WHITE ROSE FASHION DESIGNER OF THE YEAR 2011

Congratulations to Joel McCormack (Y11) who won the White Rose Young Fashion Designer of the Year 2011. Joel was surprised to discover he had won the competition during an art lesson, when Real Radio's Breakfast presenters Dixie and Gayle came into school to give him his prize, accompanied by the Face of White Rose Model Christelle, who was wearing the fantastic winning design. Joel won an all-expenses paid trip to London Fashion Week together with spending money and a cash prize, which we believe he spent on a camera.
