

Create a scene

- Explore how to make up your own believable, 'tense' argument scene. It should start slow, get louder & quicker until you reach the climax. There should then be a dramatic pause. Be prepared to perform! No physical violence! It must be realistic

1. Someone has stolen [or appears to have stolen] money from your bag in the changing room
2. A teacher has overheard you talking on your mobile phone. You appear to have been insulting the teacher.
3. Your mum/dad have found a detention letter in your bag about poor behaviour /lack of homework] Actually it belongs to a mate who wanted you to look after it so that his/her parent don't find it. Your parent doesn't believe this.
