'The Tempest Meets Strictly Harry Potter'

On a tropical desert island Pottero, a wannabe 'Harry Potter'-wizard, casts a spell on a ship, causing it to become shipwrecked on the island. On board are his enemies 'Sir Alan' and Pottero's evil brother 'Uncle Tony'.

Ten years previously, Alan and Tony plotted and successfully got rid of Pottero. This was so they could take over his 'Milano's Pizza Chain'. Pottero wants revenge (as well as his pizza shop back)!

Marooned on the strange desert island, the crew find strange things happening to them. Everyone seems to be breaking into song - in a bad karaoke type way. Strange magical creatures called 'Ariel', cast spells and shapeshift into the presenters of 'Strictly Come Dancing'.

It's a tale of love, hate, revenge, magic, scrabble, ritz cheese biscuits and Dobbies!

*Come along and see if you can resist the magic of the island!
Will you feel compelled to break into song or just laughter?*
